

UniFiji Promotion at Tavua College's Careers Expo

The University of Fiji Marketing Team comprising Ms. Manpreet Kaur from the Department of Language, Literature and Communications, together with a student volunteer, Vineeta Narayan went on a day-long marketing visit to Tavua College. The College held Careers Expo on 19th August, 2018 organized by the Ministry of Education.

Speaking at the Official Opening Ceremony, the Guest of Honour, the Principal Education Officer Curriculum Development Unit, Mr. Shiek M. Masud impressed upon the significance of hosting Careers Expo sessions adding that this event provides tertiary education providers and other key corporate sectors an opportunity to showcase their products, programmes as well as the myriad career options after completing high school. The day-long session saw UniFiji promote the various programmes it has on offer. UniFiji marketing booth was visited by numerous high schools from Ba, Tavua and Rakiraki, making their way to the booth. The duo representing UniFiji shared that a lot of eager and zealous students, as well as practicing teachers showed interest in the various programmes of the university.

The Chief Guest while making a tour of all the marketing booths shared his delight on being proud Alumnus of The University of Fiji. Mr. Masud and Tavua College Principal, Ms. Vikashni were proud postgraduate students of the University.

The University of Fiji under the able leadership of the Marketing and Public Relation Officer, Ms. Shirley Prasad is leaving no stones unturned when it comes to promoting the university. Ms. Manpreet Kaur is appreciative of Student Volunteer's commitment to market UniFiji and its programmes.
