Professor Sushila Chang Appointed Vice-Chancellor of The University of Fiji

The University of Fiji is delighted to announce the appointment of Professor Sushila Chang as the new incoming Vice-Chancellor from 2 September, 2019.

Professor Chang joins us from Cardiff Metropolitan University where she was Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic. Professor Chang has extensive experience in higher education, having held numerous senior positions internationally including at The University of Queensland, Australia, Griffith University, Australia, the Singapore University of Technology and Design and Ngee Ann Polytechnic, Singapore. She has worked with Nestle SA and was the co-founder of two research start-up companies in aquaculture.

Professor Chang maintains several industry and professional body memberships including the Board of the International Life Sciences Organisation, which she chaired from 2010-2012 and remains a trustee.

She was also President of the Singapore Association of Microbiology and Biotechnology for 6 terms.

Professor Chang holds a BSc(Honours) in Biology from the University of London, a PhD in Cellular Biology and Toxicology from The University of Paris VII and a graduate certificate in Intellectual Property Law from The National University of Singapore.
