Press Statement

The Chairperson of the University of Fiji Council, Mr Kamlesh Arya said today that on behalf of the Council he had written to Dr Sushila Chang regarding the cancellation of her work permit by the Department of Immigration on 24th March 2020 and the impact of this directive on her employment with the University.

Mr Arya said that Dr Chang had been informed that due to the Immigration directive which also declared her a 'prohibited immigrant for an indefinite period' she could not fulfil the terms of her employment contract with the University. Accordingly, her contract was deemed to have been terminated.

Chair of Council.
