

Staff Impress on UniFiji programmes in Nadi Schools

Dr. Kamala Naiker, Ms. Manpreet Kaur and Ms. Sanjaleen Prasad of the Department of Language, Literature and Communication were invited by the School Heads of Maharishi Sanatan College, Ratu Navula College and Nadi Muslim College to address their Year 13 students. These students were in the process of making their career choices for higher education institutions.

The team prepared a comprehensive PowerPoint Presentation entailing all the Programmes offered by the University, fee structure, entry requirements, various schools within the University, Research Centres and other extracurricular activities that students get opportunities to partake in.

In each School the Team devoted 1 hour to addressing the students and allowing time for questions and answers.

The Language, Literature and Communication Department also presented English and Hindi Books to schools to complement the schools' libraries and this was well received by the staff.
