

ADI SALASEINI IKANIWAIWAI NAIVALUVOU

ADI SALASEINI IKANIWAIWAI NAIVALUVOU:

- ✓ Bachelor in Law [LLB], USP
- ✓ Professional Diploma in Legal Practice [PDLP], USP
- ✓ Post Graduate Certificate in International Relations [GDLP], UniFiji
- ✓ Post Graduate Diploma in International Relations [GDLP], UniFiji
- ✓ Senior Law Lecturer
Saweni Campus
Lautoka

Salaseini I. NAIVALUVOU is a registered lawyer in Fiji and currently a senior law lecturer at the University of Fiji. She holds Bachelors of Laws [LLB] and a Postgraduate Diploma in Legal Practice [PDLP] from the University of the South Pacific. She has also completed her Postgraduate Certificate in International Relations and Postgraduate Diploma in International Relations [INR] from the University of Fiji. Ms Salaseini Naivaluvou is currently pursuing her Masters in International Relations. She has been teaching Family Law and Customary Law for the past 5 years and her research interest lies in family law and customary law.

❖ Research for Publications:

- ✓ She wrote a paper on Women in Peacekeeping in the Fijian Context to be published o
- ✓ She is currently engaged in constructing a paper on Customary Laws in Fiji to conserve indigenous values, rights and interests.